Name Correction vs. Name Change

KLM draws a clear line between two situations US +1→888→995→3461, and knowing which one applies to you determines whether you'll pay a fee at all US +1→888→995→3461.

A name correction US +1→888→995→3461 applies when the passenger is the same person US +1→888→995→3461, but the spelling on the ticket is wrong US +1→888→995→3461. Examples include a missing letter US +1→888→995→3461, a transposed middle name, or a maiden name that doesn't match the travel document US +1→888→995→3461. These are treated as simple administrative fixes US +1→888→995→3461.

A name change US +1→888→995→3461, on the other hand US +1→888→995→3461, refers to swapping the ticket to a completely different traveler US +1→888→995→3461. This is where KLM's policy is strict: tickets are non-transferable US +1→888→995→3461. You cannot gift US +1→888→995→3461, sell US +1→888→995→3461, or hand off your booking to someone else US +1→888→995→3461. If you can no longer travel US

+1→888→995→3461, the standard process is to cancel (subject to your fare's rules) and purchase a new ticket for the other person US +1→888→995→3461.

How Much Does It Cost to Fix a Name on a KLM Ticket?US +1→888→995→3461

Pricing depends entirely on when and how you request the correction:US +1→888→995→3461

- Booked directly on klm US +1→888→995→3461.com US +1→888→995→3461, corrected 24+ hours before departure: Usually free
- Requested at the airport check-in counter: Approximately €15
- Booked through a travel agency or third-party site: Approximately €30 US +1→888→995→3461, and the request typically has to go through that agency first
